Bob Mullen was absent with notice.
- III. Citizens Comments/ Participation- None.
- IV. Minutes
- a. Regular Meeting – February 21st, 2024: Jean made a motion to approve the minutes; Bob L seconded, passed 3-0.
- V. Business
- a. Properties – 1892/Sherman Memorial, Chase Res, Quandoc, Mason Hill, Other: Chase Res was being discussed at the Council meeting; a forestry management plan will hopefully be in the works soon. ECFLA said they would replace the kiosk plexiglass; they are still progressing on their responsibilities. A special meeting/site walk was scheduled for Monday, March 25th at 10AM at 1892/Sherman Memorial Conservation Area. A tree is down at Quandoc but is deterring people from the ATV trails so it will be left as is. The Quandoc stream crossing needs fixing. Mason Hill has flowers blooming and looks to be in good condition. Cat Hollow has active volunteers and their volunteer project is underway. Discussed improving brochures. Discussed adding QR codes to kiosks as an alternative to paper brochures.
- b. Environmental Award Update: The Environmental Award was given to the Killingly Community Garden at the Council meeting.
- c. Upcoming Events: Bus Tours, Walks, LGV Spring Outdoors: Allison filled out TLGV submission form on their website for the Spring Outdoors events. The upcoming bus tour will be advertised for one week in the Shopper's Guide/Turnpike Buyer.
- d. Conservation Workshop Idea: Allison will do preliminary research and reach out to potential speakers.
- e. Updates and KCC Members Update: One alternate spot is open.
- VI. Correspondence to the Commission: None.
